

Fundraising ideas

Art fair

Let the little Picassos have a ball and help them sell their art work for children in need.

Bake sale

Jordan and friends sold cupcakes and cookies to raise $200 to help feed children in Somalia. Why don't you whip up something sweet for a great cause?

Pop quiz

Get some fun pop questions and organise a quiz with simple prizes (e.g. home-baked cake). Perhaps even set a theme, e.g. movie quiz, history quiz.

Car wash

Create your own Sunday car wash and let your whole street or town know! Play some music and have your friends help you out.

Fancy dress party

Everyone loves dressing up, so why not have a fancy dress party and get everyone to come as their favourite characters. You can dance the night away and help raise money at the same time.

Sports day

Plan a sports day! Kids and adults alike enjoy fun games like the sack-race, and egg-and-spoon race. Get sponsored by friends and family to raise money in a fun way.

Teacher baby pictures

Have your teachers give you a baby pictures. Ask which baby is which teacher for 50c a guess. Make sure to include the Principal!

Movie night

Rent a projector, make some popcorn and invite your family and friends for a classic flick. Or ask your local cinema if they will give you a screen for a charity night for something big!

Dog walking

Get some fresh air and exercise whilst strolling with your favourite animals.

Garage sale

Why not clean out the house and fundraise at the same time? One person's junk is another person's treasure!

Lose/gain weight

Lisa burned 30,000 calories in the gym to raise funds for malnourished children. Now how's that for motivation!

Toddler race

Arrange a bike race for the little ones and cheer them on for a great family day.
